

Please leave the Telephone Privacy Law as is. It is such a relief to not have solicitors bothering us during the week and especially on the week-end. We can now enjoy an evening meal without interruptions. We used to be bombarded with calls and now we get very few which is such a relief.