

Dear Commissioners of the FCC,
I strongly urge you NOT to drop the rules governing media ownership.
Indeed, I suggest you strengthen those rules by limiting even further the ability of corporations to own multiple media outlets.

I agree with those who believe that further concentration of ownership will have serious consequences for our culture and democracy, "by stifling dissenting voices and further dumbing down the information available to consumers."

Furthermore, as an independent writer and creator of material for various media outlets, I am concerned that the reduction in competition that deregulating our mass media would cause will deprive me of the means by which I earn my living.

Yours truly,

Hakon Heimer
