

I live in Indiana and am on the no call list regulated by the state. This has been a the best law that our state has ever seen. I was receiving three to four phone solicitations a night prior to this list and now I receive none. I understand that you are considering a nation wide rule that will override our law and that your rule is significantly weaker than our. I oppose this change in the strongest manner.