

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

There already exists too much concentration of media power. This certainly enriches media owners, but it goes against the interests of a public that needs to be kept informed. The purpose of the media is, first of all, to serve the public. I urge the FCC to NOT loosen the current rules that protect diversity of media ownership.
