

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

Please be advised of my personal alarm t the prospect of further deregulating the rules governing media conglomeration. Haven't we seen, with the scandals in corporate Amercia this past year, that our problem is NOT OVERREGULATION but INADEQUATE and INEFFECTIVE REGULATION?
