

Please protect the small ISP in their right to free enterprise. Especially in rural areas such as this, if I do not have a small ISP every time I want to make an internet connection, it is a longdistane call. This is cost prohibitive. If the ISP needs to raise thier rate any higher, it will be unaffordable.