

Declaration of Robert Wilson

1. My name is Robert Wilson. I am Vice President of Programming for Cox Communications, Inc. ("Cox Communications"), a position I have held since 1997. Prior to 1997, I was employed by Cox Communications as an Assistant Business Manager and later as a Director of Operations, Finance and Administration. I have been with Cox Communications and its predecessors for over 22 years.
2. My responsibilities include general oversight of all of the Cox Communications' cable programming agreements with content providers including local broadcasters, national television broadcast networks, and cable networks.
3. Through my position at Cox Communications, I am familiar with and have personal knowledge of the negotiations resulting in Cox Communications' cable programming agreements. These include retransmission consent negotiations with local broadcasters and national broadcast networks, as well as carriage negotiations with vertically integrated and independent cable networks. I also have personal knowledge of certain practices particularly associated with the major national broadcast networks including their attempts to tie carriage of affiliated cable networks to retransmission consent agreements involving their owned and operated broadcast stations.
4. I have read the foregoing "Comments of Cox Enterprises, Inc." (the "Cox Comments") filed in the Federal Communications Commission's docket on the 2002 biennial review of the broadcast rules. The factual statements made therein in Section III.C concerning the Cox Communications retransmission consent negotiations and agreements are true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief.

I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct.
