

I oppose loosening the rules designed to promote and protect diversity of media ownership. These rules were adopted to ensure that the public would receive a diverse range of viewpoints from the media, and not simply the opinions of a handful of media conglomerates.

Additionally, I am appalled at the lack of quality and diversity in news programs. I find that to get honest (non-spun) news I have to go to BBC or the internet.

In order to get music diversity I must go to the internet.

If you travel in most cities in the US, you find the same programming everywhere.

Save us from the mass mediocrity foisted upon us by the Mega Corporations that run the media in the US. Deregulation has NOT led to greater diversity nor competition, just the opposite.

It is no wonder that creativity is waning in the US.
