

Broadband over tradition telephone network would be a tremendous benefit to many americans. Many americans cannot afford the setup and monthly cost of current high-speed options. Another option over current wires would open better internet connections to many and will probably reduce both setup and monthly costs.

I favor allowing this technology to reach the public as soon as possible.

Thank you.