

I support a national Do Not Call list. Because my days off should not start with someone trying to sell me a credit card at 8:30 am.