PCIA MICROWAVE CLEARINGHOUSE
SEMI-ANNUAL REPORT TO THE COMMISSION

The PCIA Microwave Clearinghouse (the "Clearinghouse") hereby submits its semi-annual report on its progress implementing the Federal Communications Commission's (the "Commission") microwave relocation cost sharing plan.¹

Clearinghouse Operations Since August 1, 2002

Since August 1, 2002, the Clearinghouse has registered 164 additional transmitter links from PCS licensees, for a total of 3,445 links registered since the Clearinghouse began its operation. In addition, in the past six month period, the Clearinghouse has received additional PCN's for 43,295 base stations, for a total of 268,702 PCN' base stations received to date. Since operation began, the Clearinghouse has identified 7,435 cost-sharing obligations, requiring monies to be paid to parties who relocated those microwave links.

The Clearinghouse Board of Directors and the Technical Working Group have met on two separate occasions during the past six months. They also met on a monthly basis to discuss various technical issues with respect to operations and processes of the Clearinghouse. The current Clearinghouse Board of Directors is comprised of representatives from the following companies: Sprint, AT&T, Verizon, T-Mobile, Cingular Wireless, UTAM, Edge Wireless, Leap/Cricket, and Qwest Wireless.

The Clearinghouse Technical Working Committee continued to work on updating its software and data processing, in order to improve its reporting with respect to microwave cost reimbursement. The Technical Working Group also finalized its guidelines and processes for reimbursement obligations involving licenses in disaggregation and geographic separation cases.

Respectfully Submitted,

PCIA MICROWAVE CLEARINGHOUSE
