

This country was founded on competitive business. While internet access is a necessary part of our world, it should be available to any co. who purchases rights at the most competitive price. Please do not eliminate small providers, only to serve the large firms.