

I oppose the current proposal to permit radio stations to own and operate more stations in each media market. Freedom of information is impeded by the increased lack of diversity in radio news.