

Chairman Powell: We in the rural areas of the country are totally dependant on this type of competitive market. Please do not allow us to be caught in the strangle hold of the cable companies. Our needs and the needs of small business that provide for vast numbers of jobs, as well as a competitive market, hang in the balance.