

Please do not loosen the limits on media concentration. The current trend toward entertainment rather than news and public issue coverage, exemplified by the Disney/ABC connection, will hurt public awareness and thereby the roots of our democracy. Our public policy depends on an electorate exposed to a wide variety of information and historical context so it can make informed decisions.

Many thanks for your consideration.