

Please do not relax the rules governing media ownership. Right now, one company owns 1200 radio stations nationwide. If one company were to own the majority of media outlets within a given area, they would have tremendous influence on the public; this is anti-democratic and downright sinister.