

An informed populace is the cornerstone of our democracy. We must have real choices in where we get our news / music etc. If one media outlet, such as Clear Channel, owns too large a percentage of the radio stations, this choice is undermined. Please limit the number of radio / tv stations / media outlets that one company can own. Thank you. I will be watching this decision making process with great interest.