

I am unalterably opposed to monopoly control over the airwaves. Media ownership should be as broadly diffused as possible. Furthermore all broadcast media should be obliged by law to provide significant prime-time free air-time to political candidates from any party which garnered at least 5% of the vote in the last general election in that district. The airwaves are the property of the people.