

I oppose large corporations owning and controlling so many radio stations. If all locations are regulated by the FCC they will all be on an equal footing. To preserve the American system this is best. Thank you.