

I would like to register my opposition to further deregulation of ownership provisions for broadcast media. Further monopolization of broadcast media threatens this nations already eroded freedom of the press. I favor stiffer limitations on corporate ownership of media outlets, particularly within any given market. You must assure that a diversity of perspectives continues to thrive, so that the public has access to information necessary to sustain democracy.