

Gentlemen:

I am strongly opposed to the further broadening of ownership of the airways, cable networks, internet, and TV stations by corporate or private interests. Our airways belong to the people to bring us information not to private commercial, political or religious interests. This is the only way we can have the freedom that the President talks about! I believe the ownership is too broad now and needs to be narrowed!