

Removing line-sharing without ILECs competing out of region is about as stupid as you can get... The 1996 Telecommunication Reform another good idea screwed up by the FCC