

I as an amateur radio operator oppose the concept as described. If this is approved, important emergency communications via amateur radio will be affected and with Homeland Security a major concern at this time, we as a nation can not afford to sacrifice this important national resource for the sake of big business.

Respectfully,
John M. Nashmy Sr.
N2EVD