

I would like you to delay the decision process related to ownership. Proposed changes have not yet been sufficiently publicized. I myself am not aware of the details of these proposals. I would expect that these changes may tend to limit the range of opinions expressed on the public airwaves. This broadcast information plays an important role on which information which may be available on the internet is sought out by any significant population.

Without sufficient consultation, many groups will feel that their voices have been defeated. Some may seek other than political means to attempt to be heard. This would be unfortunate.
