Re: Notice of Ex Parte Presentation
MB Docket No. 02-277; MM Docket Nos. 01-235, 01-317, 00-244

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On May 12, 2003, Bruce T. Reese, CEO of Bonneville International Corporation (“Bonneville”) and outside counsel Adam D. Krinsky and the undersigned met with Johanna Mikes, Media Advisor to Commissioner Jonathan S. Adelstein, to discuss the newspaper/broadcast cross-ownership rule. In particular, Bonneville noted that there is no rationale to retain the newspaper/radio rule or for any limits, direct or indirect, on common ownership of newspapers and radio stations.

Elimination of the rule would provide significant opportunities for newspaper owners to improve the news and information programming on radio stations. The record demonstrates that radio stations under common ownership with newspapers offer more local news and better quality non-entertainment programming than other radio stations.¹ In Amarillo, Texas, for example, KGNC-FM – part of a newspaper-radio combination – is the only music-format station that presents regular local news programming.²

² See Comments of Morris Communications Corporation, MM Docket Nos. 01-235, 96-197 at 10 (Dec. 3, 2001).
