

To be able to be heard across the world is a power we should begin to realize as an invaluable tool to harmonizing the voices upon this planet. To value the perspective of one individual, or group of individuals (no matter what their economic value) is terribly detrimental to our freedom and pursuit of knowledge. This is an issue we must look deep into our hearts to see the accountability. How would you like your children to see?