

I oppose the proposal to allow one owner to own more broadcast media in a local market than is now allowed. It is difficult enough as it is to get unbiased coverage of news. Consolidated ownership is just a bad move, one that goes against the importance of dissemination of information necessary to a real democracy.