FCC Form 312: Response to Question 34

Section 310(b)(4) of the Communications Act of 1934, as amended, establishes certain limitations on indirect foreign ownership and voting of certain common carrier and broadcast licensees.<sup>1</sup> By definition, these limitations do not apply to non-common carrier space and earth station licenses or private wireless licenses held by Hughes Electronics Corporation and its subsidiaries. The Commission has also previously established that these statutory limitations do not apply to a licensee providing a subscription DBS service, such as DIRECTV.<sup>2</sup> For further information concerning pre- and post-merger corporate structure and ownership of Hughes Electronics Corporation and its subsidiaries, please see the narrative description in the Consolidated Application for Authority to Transfer Control.

<sup>2</sup> See Memorandum Opinion and Order, MCI Telecommunications Corp., FCC 99-110, 14 FCC Rcd. 11077, 11081-82, ¶¶ 11-14 (1999). The Commission has also clarified its rules on this point by eliminating a provision that might have been interpreted to apply foreign ownership restrictions to subscription DBS operators. See Report and Order, Policies and Rules for the Direct Broadcast Satellite Service, FCC 02-110, 17 FCC Rcd. 11331, 11348, ¶¶ 31-32 (2002).

FCC Form 312: Response to Question 35

The parties have not requested any "waivers or exemptions from any of the Commission's Rules" in connection with the transfer of control of existing licenses. TNCL has, however, requested: (1) that the Commission waive the application of its "cut-off" rules with respect to all pending applications filed by Hughes Electronics Corporation ("Hughes") or its subsidiaries (including PanAmSat Corporation and PanAmSat Licensee Corp.) for additional space station authorizations, to the extent that those applications have been the subject of an FCC cut-off notice prior to the closing date; and (2) that Commission grant of the transfer applications include authority for TNCL to acquire control over (a) all authorizations issued to Hughes or any of its subsidiaries while the transaction is pending, (b) construction permits held by such companies that mature into licenses while the transaction is pending, and (c) applications that are filed after the date of this application and are pending at the time of consummation of the proposed transfer. See narrative description in Consolidated Application for Authority to Transfer Control.

1. State Department Review

On December 26, 2002, the U.S. Department of State issued a formal charging letter to Hughes Electronics Corporation and Boeing Satellite Services, Inc. ("BSS"). The letter alleges violations of Arms Export Control Act and relates primarily to the involvement of Hughes Space and Communications Company ("HSC") in reviews of two failed launches of commercial communications satellites on Chinese rockets in 1995 and 1996. HSC was subsequently acquired by The Boeing Company, but Hughes retained certain obligations with respect to the resolution of these matters. Effective March 4, 2003, the State Department, Hughes and BSS entered into a Consent Agreement to settle this matter. In addition to payments by Hughes and BSS for past expenditures, future enhancements and civil penalties, the Consent Agreement requires each of Hughes and BSS to appoint a third party to serve as a Special Compliance Officer. Except for ongoing compliance with the terms of the Consent Agreement, this fully and finally resolves all issues regarding this matter.

2. Cable Connections, Inc., et al. v. DIRECTV, Inc., et al.

In May 2001, plaintiffs filed a class action complaint in Oklahoma State Court alleging claims including breach of contract and fiduciary duty, fraud, promissory estoppel, antitrust and unfair competition. The four plaintiffs are independent DIRECTV retailers who claim to be bringing the complaint on behalf of all independent retailers, including former PRIMESTAR and USSB retailers. In August 2001, the case was stayed and the court ordered the individual plaintiffs to pursue their claims in arbitration. After seven months of inactivity, plaintiffs filed a motion for class certification of their claims in arbitration. DIRECTV opposed this late request filed in contravention of the court's stay order, but the court entered an order indicating that it would retain jurisdiction in order to determine whether the prerequisites for class treatment exist. DIRECTV appealed the order, and the State Supreme Court issued an order permitting DIRECTV to proceed with its appeal. Appeal is now pending.

3. Garcia v. DIRECTV, Inc.

In April 2001, Mr. Garcia, an independent retailer of DIRECTV equipment, instituted arbitration proceedings against DIRECTV, Inc. regarding chargeback and commission disputes. While that arbitration was pending, Mr. Garcia filed a class action complaint against DIRECTV, Inc. and Hughes Electronics Corporation in Los Angeles Superior Court asserting claims relating to the same chargeback and commission disputes and a Consumer Legal Remedies Act claim. DIRECTV, Inc. and Hughes Electronics

Corporation moved to dismiss and compel arbitration, which motion was granted by Los Angeles County Superior Court. However, the court's order purported to retain jurisdiction to determine whether the prerequisites for class treatment of dealer claims within an arbitration are met. DIRECTV, Inc. and Hughes Electronics Corporation filed a notice of appeal of this order. The appellate court denied DIRECTV, Inc.'s appeal, thus permitting the trial court to set a schedule for class discovery and a class certification hearing. DIRECTV, Inc. and Hughes Electronics Corporation petitioned the California Supreme Court for review of the order, but the California Supreme Court denied DIRECTV, Inc.'s petition for review. DIRECTV, Inc. will be filing for a writ of certiorari with the United States Supreme Court to review the decision of the California courts. The Los Angeles Superior Court has stayed all proceeding in connection with the Garcia litigation pending a decision by the United States Supreme Court dealing with issues regarding the Federal Arbitration Act. This decision is expected to be issued in June 2003.
