

I am a Republican and I think what the FCC is about to do regarding media ownership is just horrible. There needs to be fragmentation in media ownership, because too much power in the hands of a few is a bad thing. The system needs checks and balances.

I just don't know what the problem with Michael Powell is. He seems to have no interest in hearing public comment (because he knows what the comments are going to say?) and seems to be single minded in destroying any independent media.
