

I disagree with the implementation of this rule change. I believe that the effect of this change will be to limit public notification and discussion of issues that effect the owners of large numbers of stations. It will allow a few powerful people to control debate on issues critical to the public welfare. The airwaves are public domain and still the most powerful communications medium and should not be operated for the profit of a few corporations and companies.