

I believe the American public has suffered from past consolidation of broadcast ownership, and oppose further consolidation. I urge the FCC to reject any regulations which would enable further consolidation of ownership.