

I oppose more media consolidation. On June 2 please retain the present rules of ownership. I want to be able to see and hear differing points of view and not all from the same core source.