

I oppose the BPL/PLC modes proposed. The power companies already create so much hash across all of the HF spectrum from poor maintenance or negligence that added RF generated and sent down power lines will cause poor communications conditions for all HF users. The poorly engineered televisions, computers, gas pumps, DSL, Broadband cable leaks etc. are becoming more difficult to deal with now. The BPL/PLC will only add to everyones problems.

Thank You,
Mark Ryan