

I am in favor of the greatest number of corporations being represented in media, rather than having only a few entities owning all the broadcast centers. This is in the best interests of keeping the viewing (or listening) public informed with a well-rounded viewpoint.