

Please consider regulating cable internet access and modem rental fees. Because there is no competition for this service in many areas, providers are free to charge whatever they like. It seems like fees go up every year with no improvement in service or infrastrucure upgrades to justify said increases. Thank you for your consideration.