

Forcing associations to obtain the written consent of their own members before transmitting any fax that could be interpreted as commercial in nature will create a significant economic and labor-intensive burden for the association community. Associations rely on faxes as a prime source of communication and marketing to meet the needs of our members.