

I am against having GPS units use GMRS frequencies. We already have enough trouble with the operators of FRS radios, just jumping in and not checking to see if the channel is open or already in use. We need to keep these frequencies for voice only. Thank-you!