

The North Florida Amateur Radio Society--a 350 member group--sees major problems with implementation of BPL technology in its current form. Tests indicate that users of frequencies below 80 MHz. will suffer heavy interference levels.

Please deny this BPL proposal until improvements can be realized which will not impact Amateur Radio and other users of HF and low VHF spectrum.

Billy Williams
President/Trustee North Florida Amateur Radio Society