

I am asking your consideration for staying your new regulation that would make it unlawful to send a fax with commercial content to anyone without first obtaining signed written consent. This new ruling would cost our non-profit organization a great deal of money and would interfere with our ability to communicate with our stakeholders. I also have concerns regarding how the FCC would determine which transmissions are commercial in nature.