

I would like to express myself AGAINST the BPL concept. This has great potential to cause interference in important radio bands including the aviation, amateur, citizens band and many other radio services. It would be particularly detrimental to the amateur bands, since they are of great value during emergencies.