

I am highly opposed to the BPL as it has been proven that this will interfere with amateur radio communications that give many hours of pleasure to a great number of people. The service from amateur (Hams) are also called on in times of disaster by national as well as local agencies.