

I support, completely, the comment submitted by The American Radio Relay League with respect to Docket ET 03-104. Other communications that use the 2mhz - 80mhz frequency range cannot risk the possibility of interference generated by BPL. ET 03-104 should not be approved without further testing and proof that it will not interfere with these other FCC approved communications frequencies.