

The new FCC rule actually is a hardship. It is not conducive and has an adverse operational impact on all nonprofits. The consent rules will definitely impede us and many others from carrying out our charitable purpose. We would like them to consider changing the new rule.

Sincerely,

Rev. William L. McCoy