

I support RM-10785. The Morse Code requirement should be eliminated immediately for the good of amateur radio. All licensed operators should have access to portions of the HF frequencies, with higher classes allowed additional frequencies. No one should be eliminated from usage because of a Morse Code test. Sharon Glass, KC0DWR