

RTTY Broadcast should be continued. There are always needs for alternate methods of news and information distribution, even if it is at the grass roots level.

Much energy, time, and personal funds have been invested so that we will have continuous broadcast of RTTY news, weather, and Homeland Security bulletins and advisories on the HF bands where everyone can copy RTTY to their heart's content.

Thanks for your consideration.