

i do support this petition to remove all morse code requirments from the amatuer radio because it is a thing of the past and it will keep new people from enjoy a good hobby so drop the morse code requirements for all the amatuer radio testing if the old hams want to use the morse code then let them why does the new hams have to learn it to get on the hf frequencies thank you.