

I strongly agree with this proposal. Of the proposals before the Commission, this one appears to have the most merit. The fact that some have already received Extra class licenses after passing the 5 WPM requirement should not deter the Commission for changing the rules and requiring new Extras to pass the 12 WPM test.