Re: Ex Parte Presentation
CC Docket 95-116

Dear Ms. Dortch:

On October 10, 2003, the Cellular Telecommunications & Internet Association (“CTIA”), represented by Michael Altschul, Senior Vice President for Policy and Administration and General Counsel, Diane Cornell, Vice President for Regulatory Policy, Luisa Lancetti, VP, PCS Regulatory Affairs, Sprint Corporation, Charles McKee, General Attorney- Legal Department, Sprint PCS, Hoke Knox, Sprint PCS (via conference call), Glenn Rabin, VP – Federal Communications, ALLTEL, Harold Salters, Director, Federal Regulatory Affairs, T-Mobile USA, Todd Daubert (via conference call), representing T-Mobile, Anne Hoskins, Regulatory Counsel, Verizon Wireless, and Lolita Forbes, Verizon Wireless, met with representatives from the Wireline Competition Bureau, including Cheryl Callahan, Assistant Division Chief of the Telecommunications Access Policy Division, and representatives from the Pricing Policy Division, including Tamara Preiss, Chief, Jay Atkinson, Victoria Schlesinger, and Steve Morris. The parties discussed the issues relating to intermodal porting that have been raised in CTIA's Petitions for Declaratory Ruling regarding LNP implementation and subsequent ex partes, as well as filings by Sprint and other wireless carriers in response to argument made by wireline companies.

Pursuant to Section 1.1206 of the Commission’s Rules, this letter is being electronically filed with your office. If you have any questions concerning this submission, please contact the undersigned.

Sincerely,

Diane Cornell
