

Dear FCC, The comments of G105 are difficult to swallow as an active cyclist and coach.

A portion of my income is based on coaching cyclists. Finding safe roads to ride on has become increasingly difficult. The comments and behavior of the staff at G105 are outrageous and dangerous. Too many deaths are already caused by bicycle-vehicle accidents each year to allow this type of broadcast to go unpunished.

Thanks,

Saul Yeaton