

What impact will this broadcast code have on existing over the air set top boxes and broadcast equipment? Will existing equipment become obsolete? If Hollywood is the only media that has a problem with copywrite, then don't show their product on TV. Let Hollywood find/invent a more secure medium to sell their product.